SHOW SYNOPSIS

Welcome to Almost, Maine, a town that's so far north, it's almost not in the United States—it's almost in Canada. And it almost doesn't exist. Because its residents never got around to getting organized. So it's just...Almost.

One cold, clear Friday night in the middle of winter, while the northern lights hover in the sky above, Almost's residents find themselves falling in and out of love in the strangest ways. Knees are bruised. Hearts are broken. Love is lost, found, and confounded. And life for the people of Almost, Maine will never be the same.

ALMOST, MAINE: It's love. But not quite.

FROM OUR DIRECTOR

Shooting stars.

More than two thousand years ago Greek astronomer Ptolemy wrote that shooting stars happened when the gods got curious and peeked down at us here on earth. He believed that the gods were more receptive to our wishes at those times.

If you are a parent or loved one of one of our many talented ROHS Drama Club students, you already know that your star is flying across the sky of your life in a blaze of becoming an adult. Hurry up and wish on them now. The moment passes as fast as a wink from the gods.

DRAMA CLUB OFFICERS

Almost, Maine is a play about different people and their separate love stories. Not entirely connected, but not totally unrelated, this show is symbolic of our efforts to create it. Although we were not always in rehearsals together we still have a sense of community and unity within the club.

Now we would like to take this space to thank some amazing people:

First, we would like to say thank you to Mrs. Norling, our teacher sponsor. She was new this year and has been so helpful with everything. She took on the responsibility and ran into the opportunity full steam ahead and we cannot express how appreciative we are to have her on the team.

We would like to thank our assistant director, Ms. Hahn and our lighting elf, Chris O'Meara. Without their help this simply wouldn't be as great.

Lastly, we must thank our director Mr. Nahhat. Without his direction, our show would not be full of great memories from long rehearsals.

Please, enjoy our show and thank you for supporting our club and all of the students who have found a place in it.

Farewell,

Your 2017-2018 Officers, D-Sizzle Ozdych, Jimbo Yomas, Etan Bradley, PePi Findlay, and ZoZo Hecker

ROHS DRAMA BOOSTERS

It is hard to believe, but 6 years ago, there was no Royal Oak High School Drama Booster organization. A small but dedicated group of drama parents gathered to see how they could help this talented group of students, who at the time, had very limited resources and limited access to funds to support their performances. That small group of parents has produced a nonprofit booster group that works to provide fundraisers, access to workshops to assist actors and crew, equipment such as costume racks, proper storage for props, advertising and promotional materials to help sell tickets to these incredible performances, a website to purchase ads, t-shirts, tickets, and provide essential information to actors, families, and the community. They also partnered with ROSPAC to help raise $100,000 for the new auditorium seats you are enjoying. They have provided opportunities for students to perform their very own One Act Festival each year, purchased new wireless microphones, and this is just a brief list. There is so much more that the ROHS Drama Booster organization has done, and so much more to do. Please consider becoming a part of this incredibly fun, social group. It is a great way to connect with fellow parents, your student and their drama club friends, and the community.

Visit <http://www.rodrama.com> or e-mail rohsdramaboosters@gmail.com to find out more.

Whatever your talent or time limitations may be, you will be a welcome asset to the group.
