FROM THE OFFICERS

Hello everybody! After the triumph of Sweet Charity, it fell to ROHS Drama Club to decide on a spring show. We've kept with the vein of love and romance but the time and tone has changed, significantly. Pride and Prejudice, or P&P as we affectionately call it, has been a fantastic experience for us all. The cast and crew have worked their hearts out, doubling up on duties to pull off the best possible show. Of course, as talented as the students are, we could never get off the ground without the assistance of our lovely adult helpers, including but not limited to: Ms. Vial, Ms. Walsh, Ms. Kennedy, Ms. Oppewall, Mr. Brown and of course Mr. Nahhat. Thank you so much. We've never been more appreciative. P&P is going to be a great show- it already is- and we hope you enjoy it as much as we do.

She likes making movies in WOAK, whispering, playing banjo, hula dancing, and Surf Club (still looking for a teacher sponsor). She loves pretending that Super Saturdays are a reality TV show.

The best things about Drama, according to Connor, are making jokes only fellow seniors would get, feeling melancholy over The Goat, Alex's attack hugs, and spontaneous rap battles.

"This certainly does not feel like my last show. While I certainly will not miss the inconsistent temperatures of the auditorium, early mornings, or late nights, I will miss all of the students, parents, and mentoring directors I've had the past four years."
