ROHS Drama Club is ALWAYS in need of parent help, no matter how much time, skill, or experience you have to offer. PARENTS ARE ENCOURAGED TO VOLUNTEER but it is not required for your student to participate. We strongly urge all parents to attend the first organizational meeting on January 11th at 7:00 p.m. in the Royal Oak Auditorium.

Parent supervision and assistance in key areas is required for every production, we can't do it without you! (If you choose, you can work separately from your student). Saturdays during the rehearsal period are work days, known as "Super Saturdays". Parents and students are encouraged to come to work, learn new skills, and have a great time. Set building generally happens every Saturday (and some evenings), and assorted other crews will be working each Saturday as well.

Please check your areas where you can volunteer:	<input type="checkbox"/> General Clean Up, Jan 9th 10am- 1pm (1 hour, 2 hours, whatever you have) (parents only) - already happened

ROHS Drama Club is a non-graded extracurricular activity conducted under the auspices of Royal Oak Schools. All qualified ROHS students are welcome to commit to participate in any area of Drama Club, and will be expected to act in accordance with all behavior standards of the district. Show selection, stage casting, student leadership positions and any consultants are selected by the Drama Club Coach, in consultation with other staff members and school administration.
